Two other awards have been established in Dr. Aziz Abbaspour's memory. The first of these is the Dr. Aziz Preceptor of the Year Award to recognize excellence among the preceptors who guide and mentor PharmD students during their experiential rotations. The other is the Dr. Aziz Experiential Learning Award to recognize a faculty or staff member or volunteer who has contributed significantly to Experiential Learning. These may be given out in any year at the discretion of the Dean of the College of Pharmacy, with recommendations from the Office of Experiential Learning. (These two awards are not necessarily given annually and have yet to be awarded.)
