Eaton Entrepreneurial Award

Lyman D. Eaton II (BS 1974) and Joyce A. Eaton established the Eaton Entrepreneur of the Year Award for an alumnus/a of the College who has excelled in entrepreneurial activities during his/her career. The recipient is presented with an engraved plaque and recognized at a public function.

Eaton Entrepreneur of the Year Award Selection Guidelines:

0. The winner must have excelled in the area of entrepreneurial activity by starting or growing a company/commercial enterprise in a significant manner.
0. The Dean of the College of Pharmacy and/or his/her nominee will determine the winner.
0. The winner must be able to travel to campus and receive the award and deliver a lecture relating to entrepreneurial activity to the Dean’s Executive Forum class in the spring semester.

2019 Eaton Entrepreneur
Chief Executive Officer, Nathan Gabhart, RPh started TrueScripts Management Services to provide expert transparent prescription benefit services in a personal and educational manner to benefit employers and members alike. Nathan consults closely with clients to assess their needs and help pinpoint the programs and services that will serve them best. His many years of pharmacy experience along with his passion and commitment lies in providing honest, creative and customized solutions for the most cost-effective prescription benefits possible.

Previous Award Recipients

2013: Hamid Abbaspour (BS 1985)
2013: Alisa Wright (BS 1987)
2012: Katie MacFarlane Phillips (BS 1988, PharmD 1989)
2011: Rick Rondinelli (BS 1980)
2010: Barry Hart (BS 1990)
2009: Marcel Sassola (BS 1983)
2008: Jeff (BS 1997) and Angela (BS 1997, PharmD 1998) Jackson
2007: John (BS 1999) and Tara (BS 1999) Voliva