2014 Annual Report: Jenkins-Knevel and Kienly Awards Symposium

The Jenkins-Knevel and Kienly Awards Symposium was held on October 30, 2014. The Kienly Awards have been endowed since 1976 by gifts from Dr. Albert V. Kienly, Jr., as well as by an anonymous faculty gift in memory of Dr. Kienly's father and mother. Dr. Kienly, Jr., who passed away in November of 2002, graduated from the Purdue University School of Pharmacy in 1940, and his father graduated from the School in 1901.

The 2014 recipients of the Kienly Awards are: Christopher D. Kulczar, Department of Industrial and Physical Pharmacy; Kourtney M. Goode, Medicinal Chemistry and Molecular Pharmacology; and Kristin R. Villa, Department of Pharmacy Practice.

The Jenkins-Knevel Awards are supported by Dr. Serena Ford, daughter of Dr. Glenn L. Jenkins, Dean of the School of Pharmacy from 1941 to 1966, and other donors. They are given in honor of Dr. Jenkins and Dr. Adelbert M. Knevel (PhD 1957), professor emeritus and former Associate Dean for Graduate Studies and Research from 1969-1987. Dr. Knevel passed away in December of 2006.

The 2014 recipients of the Jenkins-Knevel Awards are: Daniel E. Beck, Medicinal Chemistry and Molecular Pharmacology ("How a structure-based drug design project yielded improved synthetic routes to two Phase I anticancer drugs"); Jaclyn R. Myers, Pharmacy Practice ("Creation and Testing of the Student Pharmacist Well-Being Scale (SPWBS)"); Laura J. Kingsley, Medicinal Chemistry and Molecular Pharmacology ("Light at the End of the Tunnel: Ligand Binding in Cytochrome P450 Enzymes"); and Lavanya K. Iyer, Industrial and Physical Pharmacy ("Photolytic Crosslinking Mass Spectrometry to Study Molecular Interactions in Lyophilized Matrices").
