

Departments

The College of Pharmacy contains three departments, some of which offer MS and PhD graduate programs:

- Industrial & Physical Pharmacy: This department handles teaching, research, and service in all areas of pharmaceuticals, with emphasis on the following three major interrelated areas: industrial pharmacy; biopharmaceutics/pharmacokinetics and physical pharmacy.
- Medicinal Chemistry and Molecular Pharmacology: This department's goal is to discover of the basic chemical and biological sciences for the improvement of human health.
- Pharmacy Practice: This department is the home to the oldest pharmacy administration program in the nation, as well as a clinical pharmacy that focuses in two areas: educational evaluation and clinical science.