

Dean Craig Svensson to serve as Interim Dean of College of Science

June 9, 2016 - Dean Jeff Roberts of the College of Science will be stepping down and transitioning to faculty effective July 9, 2016. At that time, Dean Craig Svensson, Dean of the College of Pharmacy, will assume the role of Interim Dean for the College of Science. Dean Svensson will divide his time between the two colleges and is confident that both will continue to thrive during this period of interim leadership due to the very capable group of associate deans and department heads in both colleges.
