

Each experience includes preparation, interprofessional collaboration, debriefing and integration. All experiences are patient/client-centered and include individual, family and community context. Those collaborative experiences that are grounded in community engagement, model individual and population concerns to better prepare learners to address Indiana health priorities. Interprofessional collaborative outcomes are strengthened by the integration of the additional co-curricular elements, which deepen the foundation provided via the six anchors. For more information, contact ipe@iu.edu.